

CTQ EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS QUALIFICATION (Team Events)

CTQ.1 ORGANISATION

- CTQ.1.1 The Qualification shall be played over a period of 2 years and shall be conducted by the Secretary General who shall have the right to change the dates of matches whenever needed. On the basis of a duly motivated request from a member Association the Executive Board has the authority to change the venue of matches to a location situated on the territory of another member Association.
- CTQ.1.2 There will be a Men's event and a Women's event, both divided into 2 Qualification Divisions:
- Championships Qualification Division
 - Challenge Qualification Division
- CTQ.1.3 The Championships Qualification Division shall be composed of 30 teams, the 29 highest ranked teams according to final positions and the winner of the Standard Division at the preceding European Championships (Team events). 15 teams will qualify for the European Championships (Team events) Championships Division together with the European Championships (Team events) host Association. The remaining 15 teams will qualify for the European Championships (Team events) Challenge Division.
- CTQ.1.4 The Challenge Qualification Division shall be composed of all remaining teams; 1 team will qualify for the European Championships (Team events) Challenge Division.
- CTQ.1.5 The composition of these 2 divisions shall be announced no later than 2 months after the previous European Championships (Team events).
- CTQ.1.6 Teams not taking part in the Qualification will be drawn into the Standard Division of the European Championships (Team events).

CTQ.2 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

- CTQ.2.1 The ETTU holds the following rights for every team match within the European Championships Qualification:
- CTQ.2.1.1 The International TV rights.
- CTQ.2.1.2 The rights for Internet TV and Internet Live Streaming.
- CTQ.2.1.3 The rights for Data and Scoring.
- CTQ.2.1.4 Whenever requested by the ETTU, each Association participating in the Qualification has to provide necessary conditions and staff for electronic transmission of each home match by a "live-ticker" system made available by the ETTU.
The LSS service may also be provided by the home Association using other than the ETTU's tools, but only after previous authorization by the ETTU. In any case, additional services must not replace those provided by the ETTU website. All relevant technical details are stated in the Directives.
- CTQ.2.1.5 The exclusive right to appoint a title sponsor – plus providing advertising exposure to the title sponsor at every Qualification match. Participating Associations have to ensure that there will be no conflict of interest between their own sponsors and the title sponsor. If these sponsors belong to the same product area, the name or logo of the home Association's sponsor must not be exposed on the surrounds at any Qualification matches. The home Association must always, in any publication under their responsibility regarding the Qualification, use the correct denomination of the title sponsor. An Association failing to do this shall be fined by the Executive Board and shall be made liable for the payment of all undisputed damages claimed by the title sponsor.

CTQ.2.1.6 The right to appoint an official ball sponsor and supplier.

The Secretary General shall notify all participating Associations not later than 3 months before the start of the Qualification regarding the scope of such contract. An Association failing to use the adopted ball shall be subject to a penalty imposed by the Executive Board.

CTQ.2.2 Equipment rights (except the adopted ball), domestic TV rights, advertising rights other than those mentioned under 2.1 as well as gate receipts belong to the home Association of each match.
